

4 Things to Know when Visiting a Muslim Friend's Home

1. When you enter the house, do not look around, even if the house is very attractive, because Muslims believe that this is the behaviour of a person with an evil eye.
2. Do not express your appreciation to the owner of the home. Rather, praise God for anything that pleases you by stating Alhamdulillah (Äl häm dul li lä) all praises to Allah/God).
3. Do not greet the opposite sex. You should even avoid eye contact with the opposite sex.
4. Remove your shoes before entering the house (if that is their practice).